About the presenters

Grant Crombie. Originally from Babakin, Grant came to faith in Jesus on the Mount of Olives in 1984. While in Jerusalem he also met his future wife, Jill. Upon his return to Australia he continued farming and sheep shearing at Babakin. Grant and Jill now live in Perth. Grant is the vice-Chair of CMJ ANZI.

Dr Ashley Crane. Ashley went to Israel as a young follower of Jesus, and from there went to study in the USA. He has pastored cross-cultural congregations in Israel, the US, and WA. He obtained a Ph. D from Murdoch University and was Principal of Harvest West Bible College for 18 years. He now lives in Melbourne with wife Anna and is ministering with Celebrate Messiah, and Beit HaMashiach, a Messianic Jewish congregation.

Martin Weatherston. Martin was recruited from the Church of the Province of Southern Africa by the Diocese of North West Australia as Registrar. He was instrumental in introducing CMJ into both South Africa and Australia. As Director of CMJ ANZI (Australia, New Zealand and India) he leads tours to Israel. He is Acting Chair Elect of CMJ Israel. An HR Practitioner by profession, he has also worked in Health as CEO and in Higher Education, as Academic Tutor.

Rev Peter Abetz. Peter was born in Germany but came to Australia at age 8. The family lived in Tasmania. Peter studied agriculture and has a B. Agric.Sci.(Hons) Then he entered the ministry of the Reformed Church and has pastored several congregations in Victoria and Perth together with wife Jenny. He was a State Liberal MP from 2008-2017, and is currently the State Director of the Australian Christian Lobby.

Craig Beech. Craig is passionate about the significance and the importance of Israel & the Jewish people and takes groups to visit Israel. He stands convinced that gaining a balanced understanding of Israel in our modern day is very important. He serves on the board of Carmel Friends Australia and as Vice Chairman of Friends of Israel WA (FOIWA).

Kelvin Crombie. While living a hedonistic lifestyle on a kibbutz Kelvin had an epiphany of the Jewish Jesus in Jerusalem on Easter Sunday in 1981. After becoming a follower of Jesus he lived 24 years in Jerusalem, 20 with CMJ an evangelical Anglican society, based at Christ Church in the Old City. He pioneered the Light Horse tours and Beersheba re-enactments. Kelvin and wife Lexie came to live in Australia in 2009 and set up Heritage Resources.
